

Coming Out Monologues Submission Form

The Coming Out Monologues are written by students, faculty, staff and community members collaborating to present various aspects of the coming out process spanning the range of human emotion. We wish to include stories from numerous and unique backgrounds and perspectives, including coming out as an ally, as straight, from the perspective of parents and friends of people in the GLBT community, as well as members of the GLBT community itself. These are only some suggestions, and we are in no way limiting any submission or theme. Humorous, poignant, serious, embarrassing and creative: we want it all!

Disclaimer: We reserve the right to edit any submission for content and length. If you wish your submission to remain anonymous, we still require your name in order to edit and accept your work. You will not receive monetary compensation for your work. All submissions will be kept as a resource for future productions of the Coming Out Monologues, as such, submission does not guarantee inclusion in the current production. By submitting this form, you agree to the above conditions.

Deadline for submissions: February 26, 2010

Name: _____

Phone (In case we need to contact you): _____

Please indicate if you require discretion at this number: Yes / No

E-Mail: _____

Title of submission: _____

Theme of submission (optional): _____

Do you wish to perform your own monologue? Yes / No

How do you identify (if you wish to identify): _____

Do you wish to remain anonymous (The co-directors are the only ones who will have access to this information which will remain confidential):
Yes / No

All submissions should be brought to the GLBT Resource Center in Cain Hall C-118, or submitted to michelleg@studentlife.tamu.edu. Please include this form, along with your submission.

GLBT Resource Center at Texas A&M University ©